In the competitive world of business, it's easy to get caught up in the pursuit of success, power, and wealth. But what happens when the relentless drive for profit and status comes at a cost to our health, relationships, and personal well-being?

Dead Execs Don't Get Bonuses is a thought-provoking book that explores the dark side of corporate culture and its impact on the lives of those who work within it.

The Hidden Dangers of Corporate Culture

The authors, two former corporate executives, lift the veil on the hidden dangers lurking beneath the polished exterior of the business world. They reveal the toxic combination of high-pressure work environments, unrealistic expectations, and cutthroat competition that can lead to burnout, mental health issues, and even premature death.

The book provides chilling case studies and real-life examples of executives who have paid the ultimate price for their relentless pursuit of success.

Practical Advice for Thriving in the Corporate Jungle

While Dead Execs Don't Get Bonuses exposes the dangers of corporate culture, it also offers practical advice on how to navigate the corporate jungle and thrive without sacrificing your well-being.

The authors provide a roadmap to:

- Identify and manage stress
- Build resilience and self-care strategies
- Set boundaries and prioritize well-being
- Foster a culture of work-life balance
