

Proud Americans: Growing Up as Children of Immigrants

Being a child of immigrants is a unique and challenging experience. On the one hand, you have the opportunity to learn about two different cultures and traditions. On the other hand, you may also feel like you don't fully belong to either culture.

In her new book, Proud Americans: Growing Up as Children of Immigrants, author Sonya Patel explores the experiences of children of immigrants from all over the world. She interviews over 50 children of immigrants, asking them about their childhoods, their relationships with their parents, and their experiences with discrimination and prejudice.
